

Prayer

Father/Mother God, full of Love, Tenderness and Mercy for your sons and daughters, especially for the smallest and most vulnerable, such as all these children exploited in the mining industry.

Keep us vigilant and responsible in our consumption of those products that involve child exploitation.

May we also be a voice for these voiceless children in the face of companies and governments whose technology uses blood minerals and exploits children who should be attending school and enjoying a healthy childhood.

